long for the day may arrive can cause the general feeling was so strong for 1843 that it is quite a relief to me it is so fixed as the decision also embodied a resolution that he immediately announced I take the Surrender that it is so fixed upon will of itself have a good moral effect. I take that Gen Jackson make the very most of this deadly effort of Everett for the benefit of the Anti Slavery Cause — Please remember me kindly to our Anti Slavery friend in Boston that are several of them I should like to write to did time permit. I have not rec'd one P. Tenny mentioned about Colonis — Please take Mr Colman I am obliged by his taking the trouble for me in the case of my letter to Slaughter.

Yours truly

Respectfully

Dear Friend

I took a line to say that I transmitted at the Admiralty office the memorial from the Inhabitants of Boston under circumstances that I am to take it that confidently that its request will be granted but I do not mean to publish it until I get the duly attested copies in a very few days. The results of the resolutions which I brought over on the subject of Peace is that a meeting is to be held here to ascertain & determine whether a Convention shall or shall not be held at which the sentiments of the Peace friends in America will of course be received. As the Address meeting was only held Yesterday and the Secretary of the Peace Society will hardly have come to any conclusion upon the resolutions circulated by the Packet I mean to write a few lines if I can to the Secretary of the Boston Peace Society informing him what has been done. On the 15th we come to a memorandum resolution that the anti Slavery Convention should be held again in London in June 1843 unless there should be important reasons for holding it earlier. Though one of those who shall have
